The Office of the United States Attorney for the Western District of Washington provides legal representation for the United States in cases, both criminal and civil, originating in the Western District of Washington. The office prosecutes a wide array of criminal cases investigated by federal law enforcement agencies such as the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Drug Enforcement Administration (DEA), Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms (ATF), Immigration and Naturalization Service (INS), U.S. Marshal's Service (USMS), Internal Revenue Service (IRS), and the U.S. Postal Inspection Service. The office also defends the United States in most civil claims, pursues affirmative civil cases on its behalf, and collects debts owed.

The United States Attorney's Office for the Western District of Washington hires law students as summer law clerks to assist the office in pursuing its mission. During the summer of 2004, the office will hire up to five (5) students. The U.S. Attorney's Office is looking for highly qualified, motivated law students who will partner with Assistant U.S. Attorneys to perform, at a level commensurate with our high standards, a variety of law clerk assignments.
